Our story

Following a successful career playing for Chelsea FC, Brighton and Leyton Orient, Tony Nicholas Snr settled in Chelmsford, Essex where he pursued his passion for carpentry and opened a small store supplying materials for kitchen fitters and DIY professionals. Twenty years later, this humble business became Nicholas Anthony, supplying high quality kitchen and bathroom furniture.

In 1985 Tony Nicholas Jr, became Managing Director of the business which grew to five showrooms across the country. Partnering with the finest brands and suppliers, Nicholas Anthony is known for award-winning design and luxurious quality.

What we do

Nicholas Anthony offers bespoke design and installation services for kitchens and bathrooms for both domestic and commercial projects.

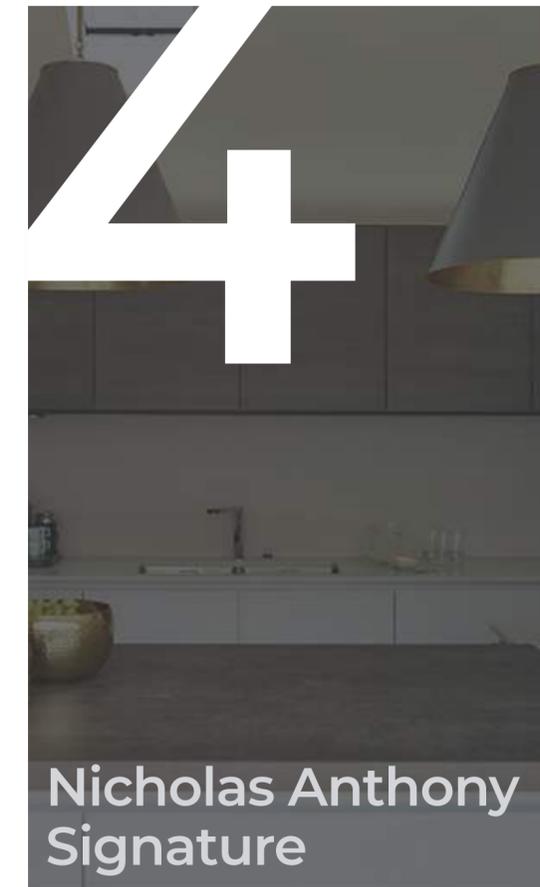

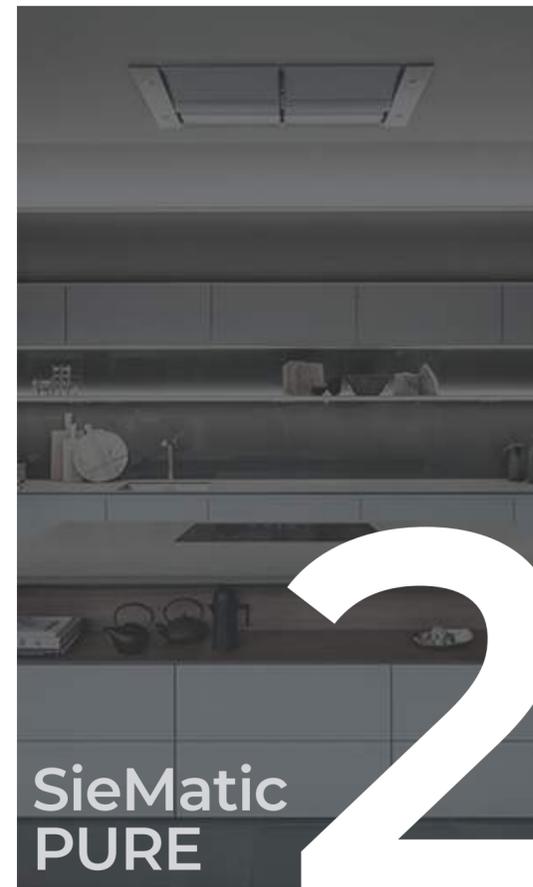

Our award-winning design team work closely with our in-house project management team on every project, large or small, to ensure that every detail is executed to the highest standard. With over 55 years experience in the industry, we have developed a respected reputation and continue to push the boundaries of design, using the best quality products so that your bespoke design will always remain a stunning feature in your home.

“Our mission is to enhance lifestyles by turning concepts into reality through innovative design and professional service”

– Tony Nicholas, MD

Our Kitchens

SieMatic PURE

The SieMatic PURE collection is the primary handleless range from SieMatic. The seamless design of smooth lines allow for beautiful architectural integration. Perfect for open-plan layouts and wide spaces, the PURE collection is a versatile beauty. If you are looking for a high-quality, minimalist feel in your home, this range would suit wonderfully.

SieMatic URBAN

The SieMatic URBAN collection champions thematic contrasts of material and design. Designed to mirror the continuous nature of the city, the URBAN collection focuses on the clever use of space through flexible furniture. Free-standing and individual units convey a sense of freedom and flexibility in your kitchen. The MultiMatic accessory system for tall, wall and base cabinets offers special solutions to storage whilst maintaining an ever so cool look.

Nicholas Anthony Signature

The Nicholas Anthony Signature collection focuses on quality and ergonomics. A wide range of colours, styles and material choices mean that no matter the period or design of your home, a Nicholas Anthony kitchen will always fit right in or stand-out wonderfully if desired.

Our Bathrooms

Our Ascot, Colchester and Cambridge showrooms display our stylish bathroom ranges. These can be ordered from any of our showrooms which offer a design and installation service.

Although we can supply customers with a multitude of brands, we have a particularly close relationship with established, top-quality bathroom companies including Hansgrohe and Duravit.
